

INTRODUCING

Gorgas Memorial Library
OneSearch

WHAT IT IS

- ▶ A new discovery platform offered by GML
 - OneSearch provides a new user experience by streamlining the search process so that users find information easily and get it wherever they are.

WHAT IT IS

OneSearch

- ▶ Searches books, articles, and MORE
 - Provides details of a physical item's location in the library
 - Provides immediate access to digital content, based on GML resource rights and restrictions

WHY USE IT???

OFFERS AN INTUITIVE SEARCH INTERFACE

- ▶ SEARCH IS MORE  ESQUE!!
- ▶ REDUCES NEED TO SEARCH MULTIPLE PLACES FOR CONTENT!!

WHY USE IT???

SEAMLESSLY INTEGRATES ACCESS TO

- ▶ GML's physical collection
- ▶ GML's electronic journals and e-books
- ▶ Articles and database resources via Primo Central

HOW DO I GET TO IT?

- ▶ Web accessible at http://primotc1.hosted.exlibrisgroup.com/primo_library/libweb/action/search.do?vid=GML

WHAT DOES IT LOOK LIKE?

The screenshot shows the Gorgas Memorial Library OneSearch interface. At the top, there are logos for the library and a world map. The main header reads "Gorgas Memorial Library OneSearch". To the right, there are links for "Guest", "e-Shelf", "My Account", "Sign in", "New Search", "E-Journals", "GML Catalog", and "Help". The search bar contains the text "dengue". A dropdown menu is open, showing three options: "Books, Articles, & More", "Books, Articles, & More Available via GML", and "Articles". A blue "Search" button is highlighted. Below the search bar, there are filters for "Show only Peer-reviewed Journals", "Sorted by: Relevance", and "Full Text Online".

Scope here is Books, articles, and More (e.g. EVERYTHING at GML and in Primo Central); use dropdown to select just Available in GML or just Articles.
